

HAPPY EASTER MOMMY!

No one will ever replace Nana. But no one can ever replace you either mommy.

You honor her legacy like no other. You have a heart of gold and a soul filled with love. Nana is always here with you...with us. Celebrating the holidays and sipping your favorite wine together.

Thank you for everything you do to keep her memory alive, and to make Easter special for the JAR's. I know she is smiling, and I know she is proud of you.

WE LOVE YOU MOMMY!!!
